Excerpt from One Hundredth Anniversary of the Diocese of Maine: 1820-1920, Christ Church, Gardiner, Maine, May Thirtieth to June Third

The documents, addresses, and illustrations herein will recall to memory the Centennial Celebration of the Diocese of Maine, held at Gardiner, June 1, 1920. To those unable to attend, they will give as accurate an idea of the historical services and meetings as it is possible for the printed page to convey. Moreover, to future historians these pages will supply material of value, compiled from many sources, about the witness borne, on these shores of Maine, in the early Colonial days by members of the Church of England, as well as the providential guidance of loyal and devoted Churchmen here at the beginning of our national history.

It has been the aim to make the bibliographical references complete. Especial credit is due to the late Rev. Charles Wells Hayes, sometime Canon of the Cathedral Church of St. Luke, Portland, and Secretary of the Diocesan Convention, afterwards an honored presbyter of the Diocese of Western New York, for his industry in collecting and binding the Diocesan Journals, and gathering other material regarding the annals of the Church in Maine. To Miss Evelyn Gilmore, of Portland, Librarian of the Maine Historical Society, we are indebted for much valuable advice and material. Also, we would record gratefully the courtesy of the Portland Evening Express, of the Parish of St. Stephen's, Portland, and of the publishers of the North East, for the use of cuts for illustrations. Rectors and wardens of many parishes and missions, and friends of the Church in Maine, without the diocese as well as within, have also kindly assisted by forwarding photographs for cuts, and by valuable information.

But most of all, the undersigned wishes to express, on behalf of the Diocese and all the members of the Centenary Committee, the thanks due from us all to Miss Marguerite Ogden, of Portland, without whose editorial ability, persistent courage, and untiring labors this book, in any thing like its present completeness, could not have been published.
