Have you ever had a relationship that just didn't 'fit'? Have you ever seen someone and just looking in their eyes made something shift under your feet? Soul mates are two halves of the same soul who go through eternity trying to find each other. When fate throws soul mates together, free will gives them the right to either reject each other or embrace the other halves of their souls. When Miranda Callahan storms out after a fight with her live in boyfriend, she finds herself being attacked in an alley; and in Bryson's arms. The only issue – other than the person hell bent on doing her harm- is that she and Bryson connect on some deep level, one completely inappropriate for them both. Bryson and Miranda are thrown together by fate, and there's no denying their attraction to each other. However, they have the dangers of Miranda's attacker, their own lives, their attraction, and their own relationships to figure out. In the whirlwind that is life, how do they know what's real, what's not, and what's just meant to be? "Destiny Takes Us" is book one in the new Soul Mates Series by Marie Travis.
