A Companion to Literature, Film and Adaptation

This is a comprehensive collection of original essays that explore the aesthetics, economics, and mechanics of movie adaptation, from the days of silent cinema to contemporary franchise phenomena. Featuring a range of theoretical approaches, and chapters on the historical, ideological and economic aspects of adaptation, the volume reflects today's acceptance of intertextuality as a vital and progressive cultural force.

- Incorporates new research in adaptation studies
- Features a chapter on the Harry Potter franchise, as well as other contemporary perspectives
- Showcases work by leading Shakespeare adaptation scholars
- Explores fascinating topics such as 'unfilmable' texts
- Includes detailed considerations of Ian McEwan's Atonement and Conrad's Heart of Darkness

As a student, I exactly feel bored to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library or make a summary for some e-book, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's spirit or real their interest. They just do what the educator want, like asked to the library. They go to at this time there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that studying is not important, boring and also can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is for being complicated. Book is very important in your case. As we know that on this period, many ways to get whatever we would like. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore, this A Companion to Literature, Film and Adaptation can make you truly feel more interested to read.
