Leon's never felt as strongly about any man as he does Andrew, but when Andrew asks to meet him for dinner, Leon's sure things are over before they've even started. Except Andrew isn't coming to dinner to call things off. He's coming to drop an entirely different bomb.

Andrew's a sorcerer. He can manipulate fire, he can manipulate lightning... but like most of his kind, what he can't do is maintain absolute control of his power when he's sexually aroused, which is dangerous to non-magics like Leon. No matter how much the two men want each other, there's no way around it: they're playing with fire, which means someone's bound to get burned.

At first, they're both willing to back off, but as their feelings for each other deepen, their mutual desire is only getting stronger, and Andrew and Leon are hanging by a thread trying to resist each other. But can they give in without getting burned?

This novella was previously published. 22,500 words.
