Alys joins a nunnery to escape the poverty of life on the moor with her foster mother Morach, the local wise woman with whom she has lived as an outcast, but soon finds herself thrown back into the world when Henry VIII's wreckers destroy her sanctuary. Summoned to the castle of an old lord to serve as his scribe, she falls obsessively in love with his son Hugo, who is married to the lady Catherine. Driven to desperation by her desire, she summons the most dangerous powers Morach has taught her, but soon the passionate triangle of Alys, Hugo and Catherine begins to explode, launching them into uncharted sexual waters. The magic Alys has conjured now has a life of its own - a life that is horrifyingly and disastrously out of control. Since heresy means the stake and witchcraft the rope, Alys is in mortal danger, treading a perilous path between her faith and dangerous power.
