Faded Rose Diana Anderson

After twelve years of a bad marriage, Rose Daniels makes the decision to get her life back. A decision that she will be second guessing after Mother Nature does a number on her, and the murder of a local woman has Rose's small hometown eyeing her as the suspect. Rose isn't the prime suspect, she's the only suspect. Only her faith can save her, but to find that faith, layer upon layer, of who she has become will have to be peeled away. With what she's up against, it would be so much easier to give up, but giving up would be costly. It would cost her, her son and her life.
