You Can't See It. It's “Write” in Front of Me is a workbook and journal for adolescents and teens. It was developed to assist adolescents and teens to self assess and understand how they can negotiate situations in their world as they grow up. Teens don't always want adults to know what's up; this journal gives them that safe space and may guide them to find their inner strength, ideas, and hopes, or just a place to vent about their feelings, daily situations, and problems. It's a workbook style journal that gives them suggestions to assist them in their writings.
