Dive in! The latest fin-tastic tale about a feisty half-mermaid introduces a mysterious boy who shares her fate. When Emily Windsnap discovers an old diamond ring during a class hunt for trinkets, how is she supposed to know that the ring is half the key to unlocking an ancient curse by Neptune himself? Now, with the ring stuck firmly on her hand, Emily finds herself under a new curse: in just a few days, she'll cease to be half-human and half-mermaid and must say good-bye to one parent forever. Can she possibly find the other missing ring that will break all the curses? Is there anyone who can help her - before it's too late?

Judith Bowman:

As a student exactly feel bored for you to reading. If their teacher expected them to go to the library in order to make summary for some guide, they are complained. Just tiny students that has reading's heart and soul or real their pastime. They just do what the educator want, like asked to go to the library. They go to right now there but nothing reading critically. Any students feel that reading is not important, boring in addition to can't see colorful pics on there. Yeah, it is being complicated. Book is very important for you personally. As we know that on this era, many ways to get whatever we want. Likewise word says, many ways to reach Chinese's country. So , this Emily Windsnap and the Castle in the Mist By Liz Kessler can make you experience more interested to read.
