Sacred Lands and Spiritual Landscapes Wendy Griffin

Sacred Lands & Spiritual Landscapes is based on a symposium sponsored by an old southern university & a very new seminary created to serve the communities of Pagan and Earth-based religions. Individual chapters include topics as diverse as the Glastonbury Goddess conference, Southern Witchery, the lesbian land movement, and an industrial band from Britain, among others. An Introduction by noted historian Ronald Hutton and comments by Chas Clifton serve to put this unique collaboration into context as the first book to come out of a gathering of scholars of Pagan Studies in North America.
