Lost World (SIRENS, Book 2) T.L. Zalecki

Prior to DiviniGen CEO Francis Galton's discovery of the elusive Sirens in Rising Tide (Sirens, Book 1), the Sirens had remained hidden from the human world, inhabiting the remote island of Rodinia while the earth slowly drowned. But now that DiviniGen knows the Sirens are the stewards of a rare life-saving algae and the carriers of the genes that express aquatic abilities in humans, Galton will stop at nothing to take possession of both them and their homeland.

As the oceans continue to rise, marine biologist Lorelei Phoenix must do all she can to protect Rodinia and its inhabitants—her father's life depends on it. Should she fail, the only treatment that can save her father will slip beyond her grasp. Seizing an opportunity to reach Rodinia, Lorelei—knowing the secret of its location—joins an expedition traveling through nearby waters. Reaching those idyllic shores, Lorelei's connection to the Sirens deepens and the success of her mission now means saving two species—humans and Sirens alike.
