Boston Inside Out: A Story of Real Life (Classic Reprint) Rev. Henry Morgan

In presenting this volume to our readers, we offer no apologies for the bald truths which it contains. Every character in the story is real, and all are known to many of the intelligent citizens of Boston. The Father Titus (fictitious name), the Rose Delaney, the Dr. Forceps in fact, every character, is on record in the Boston courts in connection with the crimes of the story. Father Titus is dead ;but several of the others still live. A well-known Republican politician and lawyer of Boston has all the facts on file in his office he being the attorney for John Delaney.
