The Framework of Our Faith: The Basics of Knowing Christ (Assurance) Harold W. Burgess

In thirteen readable chapters, The Framework of Our Faith makes an innovative presentation of historic Christianity. The contributors to the book share a common burden: namely, that Christians at the beginning of the twenty-first century have too few opportunities to adequately experience the foundational truths that have sustained the church over the centuries. Accordingly they have followed the Apostles' Creed that came largely to its final form in the fourth century. The two primary goals, then, are (1) to provide a framework for believers to understand "Our Faith" more fully, and (2) to establish a foundation for unbelievers to make a wholehearted "leap of faith" into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.
