Someday you will retire and move to a warmer climate. Perhaps the gates of Hell (too warm?) have been suggested to you by your current neighbors and that's why you want to move. But you may be thinking about the gates of a resort community where you can play golf and tennis, or just sit around peacefully all day on your patio complaining about your old neighbors (cocktails are encouraged). Actually, drinking before reading this book is highly recommended. Once you quit working, you may encounter many of the experiences described on these pages. Work is a retirement in progress and retirement is a work in progress. Interested? Then, buckle up, pay attention, and dust off your funny bone. It is important you learn to laugh at yourself... as others likely are at this very moment.
