Dancing within Shadow - A Poetic Journey Morgan Dragonwillow

"The images are fantastic, the whole thing is so creative (and full of surprises!) Energy in Motion is a sensual, sweaty, lusty, Tantric delight. Who I am brought tears to my eyes (again!) what a great way to end the book!" ~Julie Jordan Scott

This journey, filled with beautiful photos and art, travels into Morgan Dragonwillow's troubled childhood to discover her courage, her refusal to be broken, finding love, and the light of transformation. Defining moments in each section of Darkness, Rebellion, Love and Light. She shares pieces of her soul to bring light into the darkness.

If you have never been interested in poetry, this book will open your eyes to how poetry can be a wondrous journey instead of a complicated and/or boring one. It may just inspire you to write your heart onto the page.

What is being said about Dancing within Shadow and Morgan's poetry.

"I can count on one hand the number of poetry books I have read. Beyond the poems they 'forced' me to write in school... I was moved by your words and emotions." --MJ Scott, A Girl Named Michael

The Way's Not Clear - "The rhythmic tick-tock of the poem brings back those dark children's classics. Much is revealed here, simply, poignantly. My favorite line: "Papa holds a pain stick now/ or will you choose a book" — as if pain could be covered over by switching to a different activity. And so turn away, as the mother ran away. The poem captures the deep darkness of childhood memories. A lovely poem." --Beth Camp, On the Road and Home Again

Shining - "Very revealing of self-awareness born of a spiritual soul Morgan." --Shah Wharton, Words in Sync

Dancing and Weaving - "I wish I'd written this." --Viv Blake, Blogging poet.

Dancing and Weaving - "Beautiful." -- Mama Zen, The Zen of Motherhood.

The In-Between - "This just resonates with truth, Morgan. I have so darn many of these days ...when life felt so abrasive and out of sorts." --Lena Corazon, Flights of Fancy.

The Way's Not Clear - "I've been there and you captured the feeling so well and so eloquently. I love this poem." --Linda Roy, Mod Mom IndieDom
