In Mary B. Morrison's new book, she returns to the lives of the characters made famous in the Soul Mates Dissipate series.

Darius Jones is the basketball league's most valuable player. His wife and son travel with him to away games; and his relationship with his parents has never been better. He's doing well with everyone except his son's birth mother. When a drunk driver smashes into his car, his wife Fancy ends up in a coma with only a 50/50 chance of surviving--that's when the drama really begins.
