Crystal healing is a pseudoscientific alternative medicine technique concerned with treating patients holistically through the art of using crystals in coordination with the body's energy field, energy centers and energy pathways. These are also known as the aura, charkas and meridians. Crystals are capable of amplifying, focusing, directing, absorbing, diffusing and transmitting differing levels of energy. Crystals then and crystals now are used as aids in physical, emotional, spiritual healing, spirit contact, psychic development, holistic healing, and a vast array of much more. It is a gentle non-invasive relaxing form of alternative healing that works holistically to harmonize your mind, body, emotions and spirit, so you feel refreshed, restored and de-stressed. It neutralizes negativity, lift depression and help you to become integrated, whole beings.

In working with crystals, you embark on a journey of rediscovering and healing your true, inner self.
