For the past 60 years Y-Indian Guide Programs have offered thousands of 5- to 9-year-olds and their parents opportunities to laugh, love, grow, and learn together. Y-Indian Guide parent and child pairs meet in small groups called tribes to hold meetings or conduct outings that incorporate a variety of recreational and educational activities. The programs are built around an American Indian theme that provides new experiences for parents and children and reinforces their awareness of nature, community, and family ties. Y-Indian Guide Programs create a positive, ongoing experience that fosters companionship and understanding between parent and child.
