Sin Fidel es un recuento fascinante y esclarecedor sobre el último capítulo de la vida de Fidel Castro: su encuentro cercano con la muerte en 2006, sus enemigos y su estéril guerra de más de cincuenta años para derrocarlo, así como la sucesión meticulosamente planeada y el temprano reinado de su hermano Raúl. En este libro, la autora ofrece una crónica deslumbrante sobre la confrontación política entre Washington y La Habana, a partir de casi dos décadas de ejercer el periodismo a profundidad y de incontables entrevistas con los protagonistas, donde figuran tanto el comandante mismo, su hermano Raúl y otros miembros de la familia, como cubanos de a pie y oficiales y políticos en Miami, La Habana y Washington. El resultado es un doble retrato inolvidable de Fidel y Raúl Castro: sin lugar a dudas la mancuerna política más exitosa y duradera de la historia. La autora nos regala una radiografía sin parangón sobre uno de los gobernantes más controvertidos, combativos y carismáticos de la historia. Sin Fidel incluye material inédito sobre Castro, su familia y su medio siglo de dictadura en el país más grande del Caribe, a la vez que nos concientiza sobre la forma en que su adiós definitivo transformará para siempre el escenario político y social no sólo del hemisferio occidental sino del mundo entero.
