With a wealth of post-1900 produced firearms in circulation, interest in modern firearms is rapidly on the rise. The Gun Digest[registered] Book of Modern Gun Values gives gun collectors and buyers details on all major and some rare, models of handguns, rifles and shotguns manufactured between 1900 and today. This 13th edition delivers the resources to help collectors identify, evaluate condition and determine the value of more than 8,000 models. Most listings include calibre, barrel length, weight and distinguishing features, in addition to updated values (in US dollars) for each, in four grades of condition. With more than 5,000 photographs, including hundreds of new images and background information, this edition bears the traditional style collectors know and the updated information they seek.
