Do you think purity only applies to sexuality, or that discipleship is limited to "Jesus is my homeboy" T-shirts, weekly church attendance, or a Jesus fish on your bumper? Do you think salvation is great but sanctification is optional? Think again! In Living the Lord's Prayer: Becoming the Disciple Christ Calls You to Be, author Jessie Lynch helps readers understand what is necessary to become God's disciple. God is not a fan of compromises. Scripture doesn't tell us to pray a lot; it exhorts us to pray without ceasing. Jesus doesn't ask for a piece of our hearts; He demands our complete and total surrender. Christ doesn't want us to be good people; He calls us to be holy as Our Father in heaven is holy. He isn't content with our salvation alone. He desires our sanctification. That may sound daunting, but Lynch shows it is possible. Living the Lord's Prayer invites you to examine the purity of your relationship with Christ by the fruits of your life (Matthew 7:17-20) and to seriously ask yourself, "Am I a good tree or a bad tree" Learn how to surrender your heart and live your life as an unceasing prayer to the Lord by modeling the prayer of God Himself.
